AMBULANCE SERVICE

. . . is something no one wants -- until they need it; and then it can become a matter of life and death.

We have been fortunate, even in our rural, semi-isolated location, to have enjoyed dependable ambulance service. Bud Guinn and his people have done a fine job.

But Bud, like any other businessman, cannot operate at a loss forever. That is what he has been doing, Bud says. So now comes the inevitable: he must cease to provide ambulance service on December 31.

Emergency ambulance service is imperative. We cannot possibly fail to have the service available and ready to go on those times when it is needed. Those times we all hope never come around.

What do we do?

I feel that the Emergency Ambulance Plan worked out by the County Commissioners and Mayors and Councilmen from Castroville, Devine and Hondo is a start on the answer. It should be given the opportunity to work.

Everyone agrees this is probably not the ultimate answer. The cost may prove prohibitive; the service might prove unsatisfactory; mechanics of the operation may prove inadequate. It might all go wrong.

But that doesn't mean we shouldn't try it. And in trying the program, we should exert every effort to make it successful.

The County is ordering ambulance vehicles and will locate one in Devine, Castroville and Hondo. The cities will operate the ambulances with as much volunteer help as possible and on a price schedule that has been established. At the first of July 1974, the County will reimburse the cities for any deficit incurred.

At that time also, all concerned will take a close look at the program to see what changes, if any, are necessary.

This appears to be the most equitable plan that could be devised, especially since the county and cities are sort of "working in the dark" on the program. Devine and Castroville have said "we'll be ready" by January 1.

The Hondo City Council is in the process of formulating an operational plan and I have no doubt but that our city ambulance service will also "be ready to roll" come the first of the year.

CORN SHUCKING ROAD SHOW

. . . is what Hondo will have if everything works out.

We received the following letter from Crash Stewart in San Antonio and are now working out the details.

"Dear Sir:

"Radio Station KENR in Houston is sponsoring a Country Fair in the AstroHall on December 1 and 2 [Saturday and Sunday]. We would like for your group to handle the Corn Shucking exhibition and contest on both days. . . .

" . . . They are expecting large crowds and the people there have never seen an exhibition like yours. You may put out a sign stating your merits and that you are from Hondo, Texas.

"The Fair committee wants your group very badly, and we can promise you a real good time, and give the City of Hondo lots of advertising. Thank you, Crash Stewart."

Lillie [Mrs. Milton] Heyen says "she is ready and raring to go." And Colby Joe and Cappy Heyen say Chris "is ready to take on all comers." I haven't talked to Charles Halbadier yet, but kinda think he might be willing to take "the show on the road."

Some have suggested we charter a bus to Houston for the trip and I don't think it would be a bad idea, if we can get enough to go "have a good time" and publicize Hondo.

However, all the details are being worked on, and we'll let everyone know the full story just as soon as possible.

HONDO AIRBASE

. . . has played an important part in the growth and economy of Hondo over the past 21 years. Back on April 3, 1942, the Anvil Herald announced the Hondo Chamber of Commerce had received

Owls open District 28-AA

This is the week that the Owls and all the other teams of District 28-AA go into their district schedule. Tomorrow night, it will be Hondo at Cotulla, Pearsall at Carrizo Springs, Devine at Dilley, and Medina Valley will sit out the first round with an open date.

For Hondo, it's been a puzzling pre-district season so far. After edging Floresville and pounding Uvalde, the Owl offense has had its problems in two losses to Clemens and St. Gerard's.

But a .500 record is a good springboard to better things. Tomorrow night it will be a clean slate as far as championship hopes go. Hondo has won district 22 times in the past 46 years, and 23 in '73 sounds like a good idea.

Front-runner in the pre-district rounds is Devine, who carries the only undefeated record in the loop. They've dispatched Canyon, Pleasanton, Southwest, and Judson; and while they have never scored more than 21 points a game, it's always been enough.

Pearsall, the pre-season pick, and Dilley share the second spot at 3-1 each, the Mavericks lost the opener to Uvalde, but they've downed Laredo United, Pleasanton, and Somerset in quick succession to gain momentum going into loop play. They've carded 96 points, giving up 25.

Dilley's surprising Wolves went down to their first defeat last week after outscoring Jourdan, Sabinal, and Somerset, as Lytle beat them 23-6.

Medina Valley and Hondo share identical 2-2 records; but while Hondo was winning, the Orangemen were losing and vice versa.

It's been a year since the upset victory over the Owls, but the Medina Valley team and fans remember it well and hope for an encore. A week from Friday, they'll get their chance as the Panthers will open district play a week late against Hondo. So far, Medina Valley has lost to Judson and Canyon, then defeated Boerne and Southwest.

526 strong 4-H'ers plan 'their' week

Next week, October 7 - 13, will belong to the young people who form together to make perhaps the largest youth organization in the country -- 4-H.

Some 526 young people in Medina County can claim this as their "special week" as proclaimed by Gov. Dolph Briscoe. They will join all other 4-H'ers in carrying out the 1973 theme: "4-H Gets It All Together."

These Medina County youngsters belong to 11 different clubs, three in Hondo, two in Devine and one each in Natalia, D'Hanis, Rio Medina, Dunlay, LaCoste and Castroville.

In addition to club work there are a number of groups meeting as subject matter groups. These include groups on food, horses, rifles, clothing, beef, fire prevention, government, bicycle, photography and others.

Guiding the 526 4-H Club members, in cooperation with the County Extension Agents, are 76 adult leaders who work in both organizational and subject matter groups. Even with this number, those involved say they can use more leaders.

Burglars hit D'Hanis school

Two Snyder, Texas, men have been jailed in lieu of Bond in connection with a weekend break-in at D'Hanis High School. The pair is identified as Filipi Silva and Raymond Martinez, both of Snyder.

Sheriff Charles J. Hitzfelder said warrants have been issued for two other men in connection with the break-in but they are not yet in custody. The foursome reportedly broke into D'Hanis High School Sunday evening by forcing open a window. Authorities said several watches and keys were taken and the intruders ransacked several rooms before fleeing the school. Sheriff Hitzfelder and Deputy Jessie Arcos made the arrest.

City seeks volunteers

The City of Hondo is seeking volunteers to work in the City Ambulance Program.

Mayor J. G. Barry has issued the following appeal for these volunteers:

"Persons who are willing to work as volunteers in the City Ambulance Program should contact the City Secretary at 426-3378 or come by the City Office and leave their names.

"Attendance at a First Aid Training School will be required of all volunteers. Such school will be held in Hondo as soon as plans and details are completed."

Homecoming plans told

Friday, November 2 and Saturday, November 3, have been set for the two day Homecoming observance with various activities planned by the ex-students committee. Dr. John Windrow is President of the Ex-Students Association and Mrs. Ralph Jones, Jr., is Secretary.

Letters by class chairmen have already been mailed to ex-students and tentative programs are being mailed for reservations for a barbecue dinner at Hondo City Park on Saturday, November 3.

Plans this year will again start with registration at 1:00 p.m. at the Audio Visual Room at the high school. The football game between Hondo and Carrizo Springs will begin at 8 p.m. Crowning of the Homecoming Queen will take place at half-time activities.

A dance will follow the football game.

DOWN THIS BED . . . goes the water which floods Hondo when it rains. As can be seen a lot of water cannot run off because of the dense growth around the edges. So when it pours rain, this causes backup and flooding. City Councilman Bud Gwartney takes a long look at the area in a recent inspection. The City Council is studying the area, but has made no definite announcement on what they intend to do in this area. [Photo by Joe Fohn]

Letters have been mailed out to patrons across the county, and contributions are starting to come in, reports John Wentz, financial chairman.

But more contributions are needed. The Camp Fire council urges all citizens, whether you have received a letter or not, to contribute to their cause.

MORE ABOUT...

an official notice that the base would be built.

From that time to the present, except for a few periods, the airbase has been a hub of activity that spelled stability for our city.

The Army closed its base, but in 1951 [or 1952] came TAI for training. There was Universal Rundle, Hayes Aircraft, then Gary Aircraft Corporation and now Del Rio Flying Service and the Air Force's Pre-Screening Flying Training.

Which all boils down to the reason for this subject:

Tentative Open House plans are underway for the Del Rio Flying Service and the new flying program. A very tentative date is Saturday, November 10.

Therefore, with a short time at hand, the Anvil Herald is planning on publishing a special issue dedicated to the Hondo Airbase and welcoming the new school.

Naturally, we will sell advertising in the issue and any business or individual interested in being included should call 426-3346.

But more important we want pictures and information about the Airbase, from the beginning to now. We would like to have the names of Hondo and area residents who came to the city because of the Airbase [military or civilian] and stayed around to become the citizens of today. We know there are many, but we cannot begin to name them unless we know for sure.

So, give us a call. Bring us some "interesting" news on the Airbase. Let us borrow some pictures. Help us make this a complete history of our Airbase and what it has meant to the city and area. With your help and a little mid-night oil-burning we should publish a very interesting and informative issue.

TEXAS HIGHWAY WEEK

... passed last week without a peep out of me in the Anvil Herald about the importance of highways to our every day living.

Could it be that like thousands of Texans I have become so accustomed to superior roads that I take them for granted as I whiz thither and yon on my daily chores?

Possibly so. And that despite a most recent comment on the excellence of our highways from an outsider. When Francis Brown, Commissioner of Public Safety for Providence, Rhode Island, visited me briefly recently, he and I were riding from the New Frontier Restaurant to the Anvil Herald office.

"One thing for sure you have in Texas," Brown volunteered, "is an outstanding highway system."

Now, as a Back East Yankee, Brown flew into San Antonio and rented a car. He had only driven some for two days around this area and yet our highways had convinced him by being just what he said: "Outstanding."

When we drive the beautifully landscaped and well-kept highways of our State we are prone to think of only the convenience and comfort provided by a ribbon of concrete and welcome comfort stations.

We seldom stop to think that behind those miles and miles of concrete ribbons, probably some 170,000 or more miles in Texas, stand thousands of people whose days and nights are dedicated to planning, building and maintaining our highways.

People like Hondo's Resident Engineer C. E. "Chuck" Hackebell and his staff members as well as the dozens of maintenance crews working in Medina County.

So, despite the fact that we fell asleep at the wheel and allowed this special event slip a week into the past, we still believe we have "the best danged roads in the nation." And since Chuck represents all those who helped build them to this status, we say, "Thanks, Hackebell; you've done a superb job."

MEDINA ELECTRIC COOPERATIVE

... knows how to put on an annual meeting, and they did just that Saturday in the Uvalde Civic Center. Some 350 persons enjoyed a fine program on nuclear power and an excellent barbecue lunch.

I was honored to be a guest along with Representatives John Poerner of Hondo and Jim Nugent of Kerrville and Gene Harrison, manager of the Hondo City Electric System.

And that Civic Center in Uvalde is something else. It makes a almost over the hill Chamber of Commerce president green with envy wishing we had a similar structure in Hondo.

Anyway, thanks to Red Gross and all the good people out at Medina Electric for the invitation.

Shrine Circus starts Oct. 9

Lavish production numbers and an array of top acts from Europe, South America and the United States and Canada, will highlight the 30th edition of the Alzafar Shrine Circus coming to the Joe Freeman Coliseum, October 9th through 14th.

This year's show, staged by Alzafar Temple, is a spectacle of glamour and thrills. Daring performers, a vast menagerie of animals and, of course, an entire troupe of circus acts will be on hand for the 13 performances.

Many new acts will be unveiled, including Hawthorn's performing elephants, performing tigers and his horseback and elephant riding tigers, and English dressage presented by Col. E. Trevor Bale, whose circus lineage dates back to 1618.

Other animal acts include Jacobs elephants from Hollywood; Dwight Moore's Mongrel Revue; Syd Moore's Mess of Mutts and Beeswax, a performing donkey with the Moore Family.

Aerobatics and aerial excitement will be provided by such groups as the Rock Smith Flyers, an American team composed for a former NCAA and professional gymnastics champion and two former school teachers. The Nerveless Nocksm of the famous Circus Nock family of Switzerland will present sway pole, aerial ladder and tight wire artistry, the Rixos, Johnny Luxem and the Aerial Delangs.

Tumblers, jugglers and zany clowns round out the show with several colorful parade spectacles.

Tickets for each performance are $2.00 for general admission for adults and $1.00 for children under 12. Reserved seats are $3.50, $3.00 and $2.50. Tickets are on sale at Shrine Circus ticket booths in shopping centers and department stores throughout San Antonio.

Oklahoma State picked to beat Texas Tech

Nebraska is still Number One, and, a little like Ol' Man River, they just keep rolling along. A group of persistent Badgers, however, almost dammed up their river last week. The Cornhuskers visit Minneapolis Saturday, and the Gophers of Minnesota, good genial hosts that they are, will allow the visitors to steam-roller them by about 36 points. From an old Gopher: the day of reckoning just has to come one of these days!!

The Jayhawks of Kansas are also rolling, undefeated in their first three outings. Ranked #20, they meet big trouble, spelled with a "T", in Tennessee. The Volunteers, also undefeated, have been in and out of our Top 20, and are rated #10 this week.

Kansas is an underdog for the first time this year. Tennessee will win by 4.

Even with an 81 percent forecasting average on our major college picks two weeks ago, we weren't quite able to bring our season's average up to the 75 percent mark for all games through September 22nd. Our three week total reads: of 528 games, we were right on 379 and wrong on 132 (there were 17 ties) for a not too unhappy average of .742.

Missouri meets S.M.U. in a Big 8 versus Southwest Conference confrontation. The Tigers, ranked 14th, and the Mustangs, rated 18th, are both undefeated. So something's gotta give.

We say it will be Missouri losing its first game of the season: Southern Methodist by two points.

And in another Southwest against Big 8, powerful Oklahoma State tussles with Texas Tech. The Cowboys have been a tremendous surprise this year - except possibly in Stillwater, Oklahoma - and the Red Raiders were expected to be strong. Oklahoma State is ranked #6 in the nation and is favored to win this one by 19 points.

9th-ranked Penn State continues to blow the opposition apart. The Nittany Lions travel to Colorado Saturday to do battle with the Air Force Academy, and it looks to be another Penn State victory, this one by eighteen points.

Last Saturday was to have been the day of reckoning, but Oklahoma and Southern California ended in a dead heat, 7-7. The Sooners, still #3 in the nation, won't even have time to break stride as they bump into Miami, rated 15th. This will be the first football game in history between the two. And Oklahoma will draw first blood, winning by 24 points. Southern Cal moves into conference play, and the Trojans, ranked in the number four slot, are a big 41-point choice over Oregon State.

Glasscock fire damage heavy

Fire heavily damaged a utility building at the Woodrow Glasscock residence late Friday morning.

A water heater pilot light was believed to be the cause of the 11 a.m. blaze, as fumes from a cleaning compound were ignited by the pilot.

The blaze did considerable damage to one room of the utility building, and another room suffered moderate water and smoke damage.

One domestic employee was slightly injured in the explosion and fire. He was treated and released at Medina Memorial Hospital. No other injuries were reported.

The family was not at home at the time of the fire, but a maid turned in the alarm.

Un-official Weather

Taylor-Chapman Service

The last T-C report foretold strange weather to follow Equinox on September 22. True to form, the county's good general rain started about 6 p.m. September 26, and dropped 2 1/4 inches of rain here in Hondo.

That same night, considerably heavier rains doused the folks in southeast Medina County, with reports of 4-7 inches common, and higher amounts noted in some areas.

While all this was going on, Doc Taylor's oats at Rancho Chico had been planted about 48 hours before, and they eagerly lapped up the 1.80 inches that fell there.

So perfect was the timing that by Monday, October 1, they were already up and doing well.

So here we have proof that mankind has now not only harnessed fire and the atom, but Equinox as well.

For the umpteenth time, for those who neither know nor care, a moon change begets rainfall when it does its changing in the early morning hours. Don't ask how. And don't mention Equinox to the people in Devine.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown, fashioned by her mother, of white silk organza and reembodyered. Alencon lace with bridal pearls over peau de soie featuring a portrait neckline bordered in scalloped lace and pearls. The fitted waistline was adorned with an ice blue commerbund. Lace, beaded with pearls, edged the ice blue pleated flounce of the gathered skirt and train. She wore a gold and diamond cross belonging to her mother.

Her camelot cap of lace, beaded with pearls, held a full length double tiered veil of imported silk illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of white sweetheart roses, stephanotis and pale blue baby's breath with blue ribbons tied in sweetheart knots.

Mrs. Richard Schulte, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Miss Miss Tondre Schulte, niece of the bride, was flower girl. The attendants wore formal gowns of pastel flowered flocked organza over ice blue peau de soie, styled with scooped necklines, double bell sleeves, set-in Cumberbunds and full gathered skirts. They wore pastel fresh flowers and blue ribbons in their hair and carried nosegay bouquets of white carnations, pale blue baby's breath and blue ribbons tied in love knots.

The flower girl wore a dress identical to the bridesmaids, with fresh flowers and ribbons in her hair. She carried a basket of rose petals.

The mother of the bride wore a formal gown of pale avocado green chiffon with long full sleeves and a flowing skirt. She wore a pale yellow glamellis corsage.

The bridegroom's mother wore a formal gown of lavender crepe with long sheer sleeves and a soft roll collar. She wore a white glamellia corsage.

Charles Bullock, brother of the bridegroom, attended as best man. Groomsman were Jeff Tondre, John Tondre, Jr., brothers of the bride, Mark Whitman, Marvin Rokyta, Arthur Meyer and Rick Cornelius, uncle of the

by Edna McDade

LORRAINE [Mrs. Wesley] NEUMAN, shopping for potted plants, asked this question, "Who can tell an elephant ear plant from devil's ivy?" Apparently no one in hearing range could so she skipped the purchase. Maybe only an elephant or devil would know for sure?

"Shopping Hondo" last week were MILDRED [Mrs. Lowell] ELLIS of Medina and daughter, Anita, 12, who is in the 7th grade.

Contents of their well-filled grocery cart looked mighty tempting and I jokingly said I might try to follow them home. "Please do and you'd be welcome any time," said Mrs. Ellis most graciously. Texas hospitality as many Texans still practice it and mean it.

Have you seen the Museum's newest color picture post cards? LIL PORTER tells all about them in her CC Corner.

And JOHN WENTZ did a superb job as a photographer. See for yourself what he did with clouds that hung in the sky over the Museum. And FRANK GRAFF's Texas Longhorn stands knee-deep in green grass, daring you to make him move.

P. S. Do Longhorns have knees?

Medina County has some "venerable" pear trees, with those on the O. K. SCHMIDT farm and in GERTIE [Mrs. Barnitz] CARLE'S yard having passed the half century mark and still producing.

But how about this true story? In Danvers, Mass., a 342-year-old pear still bearing fruit this year. The tree is the last remaining of several brought to the New World in 1630 by John Endicott, the first governor of Massachusetts.

And that's the way it is, fellow Texans. Some we win, some we lose!

Beef shortages and the dizzy market brought to light this report: Japan and China are currently in the market for a beef by-product [of no demand here] -- cow gallstones -- and are bidding as high as $110 per ounce for the things.

The stones are ground up and used in ways best known to the grinder-uppers. Comes now the galling truth of the matter. Say stockmen who should know, there's hardly a single gallstone to an average 1,000 head of cows.

Ain't that just like a cow?

While I was in Hondo, I accompanied LOUISE [Mrs. W. L.] TAYLOR on her weekly visits to BROWN'S NURSING CENTER, where I renewed acquaintances with many friends and made some new ones.

Among the new was Mrs. NOREEN KENT, cousin of KAY [Mrs. Melvin] FINGER, who came to Hondo by way of Ireland and California. En route, she has managed to keep the sparkle of her smiling Irish eyes and the lilt of [perhaps Tipperary?] in her voice.

Across the hall from Noreen, I found NANCY and WILLIE PICHOT and we had a great time remembering when about the days when this devoted couple owned a little home in Hondo and planted flower and vegetable gardens all over the place, sharing the harvest generously with everyone who came in receiving distance.

I visited my good friend Miss ALVINA FRICK of Travis Park Methodist [SA] days. I had not seen her in years and we tried catching up to the present but there wasn't time enough so we'll continue by correspondence. Alvina is the sister of Mrs. A. J. HARDT, who keeps devoted attentions going 'round the clock.

Other pleasant visits filled the allotted hour which passed all too quickly in the manner time has of flying when you'd like some moments to stand still. I have notes and shall be reporting on them in future columns.

New young friends I met downtown one day are YVONNE [2] and MELISSA [seven months], daughters of IDA and ARTHUR GUEDEA. Just now, Daddy is overseas helping Uncle Sam to make the world safe for democracy -- for the how many-th time since we heard the commendable goal in WWI days?

Mrs. O. C. JOHNSON and I met halfway between the post office and the G&M Grocery and she was her usual cheery, chipper self. In the years I have known her, I've never heard her complain about the status quo -- which someone explained is Latin for the awful mess this country is either in, or getting in, or trying to get fresh out of.

Her attitude seems to be "let nothing us dismay!" ... and the world could use a lot of that philosophy.

Medina County has had more rain [what was it that DOC OBT said about the autumnal equinox?] Well, we've had rain here too and the mosquitoes are fielding a bumper crop. Weather man says this area has had something like 35 inches so far this year [exceeding last year] and the year still has three months to go.

While on this wet subject, here's a saying credited to the Scotch who have an uncanny way of saying things and you can read into it what you will: "It's needless pouring water on a drowned mouse."

About this time of the year, fifty years ago [1913] a big agricultural land sale was being promoted in Campbellton and Jourdan.

A half-page ad in this newspaper told it like it was, in German, so: "Gutes Wasser ... Fruchtbare ... Alle vorzuge ... Deutsche Nachbarn ... Gerade Jetzt ist die Zeit Vorteilhaft zu kaufen!"

How's that for a sales pitch? Wonder if any Hondoans bought?

Water Quality Board's training program receives accolades

The Texas Water Quality Board's Mexican-American water and wastewater operator training programs have developed better working relations between Mexican-Americans, federal, state and local governments and private concerns than almost any other recent single effort in the water quality field, Grant Manager Ray Dennis of the TWQB reported today.

Although not restricted to Mexican-American trainees, as some Anglos and Black Americans have also participated in the program, the comprehensive 20-hour courses funded by the Environmental Protection Agency and the Department of Labor and administered by the Environmental Education Program of the Water Quality Board, have served to improve international relations.

As a result of recent short courses held in El Paso, for example, the Mexican government was sufficiently impressed to invite program participants to take part in the opening of a new wastewater treatment plant in Chihuahua, Mexico. Dennis said, Richard McNeill, an instructor from Texas A&M University Extension Service who has been teaching the courses for the Water Quality Board, headed the Texas group on the goodwill tour to the new Mexican plant.

Dennis, whose easy West Texas drawl did not mask his unqualified confidence in the program, also notes that aiding the Mexican-American was one of the project goals. "We had three aims," he said, "to help Mexican-Americans and other minority groups, to improve local water pollution control operation, and to help the state and country. Trainees interviewed have expressed their wholehearted endorsement for the Texas effort."

John Amaya, a 25-year-old wastewater treatment lab technician in Laredo, described his schooling as a "tremendous help" to him. "It has not only given me a better idea of the importance of improving our treatment procedures, but the training we have received has made it possible for many operators to advance in their chosen career," he concluded.

One of the first areas tackled by the training staff is to make certain that every potential trainee has educational qualifications to comply with Texas State Department of Health regulations for certification. All enrollees without high school diplomas are prepared for General Education Development (GED) examinations to qualify for a high school equivalency certificate and, of those who have taken the GED under the new Water Quality Board program, 71.4 percent have been successful.

A total of 563 trainees have completed courses in wastewater operations at short schools offered in Brownsville, Laredo, Edinburg, Eagle Pass, Corpus Christi, Alice, San Antonio and El Paso. The curriculum was drawn up by the Water Quality Board to cover both basic and intermediate treatment procedures and the classroom work is bolstered with some 50 hours of on-the-job training.

Dennis said he had been delighted with the results, as 61.5 percent of the students taking the Health Department's certification exams had passed. Water Quality Board field checks bear out Dennis' sentiments. The environmental goals were achieved and are evident by improved wastewater effluents from plants in the training areas. According to Dennis, the few places this did not occur were at plants which were already overloaded.

The current contract with the EPA and the DOL expires in June of 1974 after completion of a similar educational series on water treatment practices. However, Dennis is hopeful about continued funding. "We need ongoing training badly in this field because of the high turnover," he said. He attributes this to the generally low salaries paid in wastewater treatment plant operation, and another TWQB program is aimed at correcting this situation.

Educators from 18 counties, including Medina and Uvalde, will gather in the San Antonio Convention Center Oct. 11 and 12 for the 39th annual convention of Alamo District XX, Texas State Teachers Association.

Business of the district will be conducted at the House of Delegates dinner and meeting from 6:30 to 10 p.m. Thursday.

For schoolchildren Friday, Oct. 12, it will be a school holiday in most of the 50 school districts in Bexar and 17 other counties south and west to the Rio Grande. For their teachers it will be an in-service training day or work day.

The convention has a potential of 15,000 persons if all educators in Alamo District will attend. There are some 13,500 members of TSTA in Alamo District, said Robert C. Henderson, district president.

Henderson said he hopes that all teachers will take part in the activities of the Southwest Texas element of the state's largest professional organization.

Henderson, of San Antonio Independent School District, praised Mrs. Peggy Nelson, Alamo Heights ISD, president-elect of Alamo District and general chairman of the convention, for the outstanding program that has been scheduled.

Friday is the big day as far as most teachers are concerned. An estimated 12,000 will attend various luncheons and meetings.

The largest single gathering will be the general session at 9:15 a.m. Friday in the Convention Center Arena. Dr. Alexander C. Carmichael, Syracuse, N.Y., vice president of the boards of trustees at both Virginia Wesleyan University and at Community College and a Onondaga Community College and a delegate to the White House Conference on Youth, will keynote this assembly with a speech entitled "Education in a Changing Society." Carmichael has been described as "a humorous speaker of rare ability."

Also addressing this session will be the president of the 150,000-member TSTA, Johnny Clark, Jr., Goose Creek, Texas.

Last year the young son of a medical doctor was riding with his mother by the Convention Center. The lad saw all the teachers and said: "Gee, Mother, this must be the smartest building in town today."

By appointment by Henderson, Mrs. Madge Roberts, Northside ISD, is serving as chairman for the elementary division, which will have five luncheons and 16 afternoon section meetings; William G. Phelps, Alamo Heights ISD* is heading up the secondary division, which has 15 luncheons and three section meetings; and Jack Abbott, San Antonio ISD, is chairing the administrative and associated services division, with 13 luncheons and eight afternoon section meetings.

This mind-boggling array of meetings will provide a speaker or program for every educational interest area in the public schools.

Amid the doctors of philosophy and doctors of education galore who will come from leading educational institutions of the state to address the sessions will be several political leaders who are also scheduled to speak.

In sequence, the latter will be State Sen. Nelson W. Wolff, scheduled to address the National Education Association breakfast at 7:30 a.m. Friday in the River Room of the Convention Center, and to speak again at the Distributive Education noon luncheon on "Education in the Business World."

U. S. Rep. Henry B. Gonzales will be the luncheon speaker at the School Food Service meeting. It is expected that the congressman will speak on the federal school lunch program.

State Rep. Matt Garcia will address the Legislative and Public Relations noon luncheon. His subject will be a "1973 School Legislation Overview."

In recent years one of the most popular features of the convention has been the exhibits area, arranged by convention coordinator John A. Giese of Boerne ISD. Manufacturers and distributors of education products and services exhibit their wares in greater numbers at this district's convention than at any similar educational convention in the state. At latest report some 75 exhibits had already been booked. The exhibits will be open from 4 to 8 p.m. Thursday and from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. Friday.

National 4-H Club Week

October 7-13

A proud salute to our own fine 4-H boys and girls for their outstanding accomplishments and efforts throughout this past year. These advertisers take this opportunity to express their continued good faith in the National 4-H programs and the benefits it brings our 4-H youth. Best wishes for the coming year.

CHEERS TO OUR 4-H'ers

Who is a 4-H'er? Not only the boy who raises a calf and cares for its healthy development, or the girl who cans homemade preserves and designs patch-work quilts... but also their city cousins who work at keeping parks and waterways clean. Lifestyles may differ, but the goals are basically the same. A 4-H'er is a youth who works for a better tomorrow, using the skills developed day by day in everything he does.

Edwards reservoir discharge sets record in 1972

Ground-water discharge from the Edwards and associated limestones in the six counties over the Edwards Aquifer during 1972 was 38 percent greater than the previous 38-year annual average for the period 1934-1972, a bulletin compiled by Celso Puente, the United States Geological Survey reveals.

Total discharge from wells and springs in Kinney, Uvalde, Medina, Bexar, Comal and Hays Counties was 10 percent greater than in 1971, the bulletin, numbered 31, newly prepared by the U. S. Geological Survey in cooperation with the Edwards Underground Water District and the Texas Water Development Board, noted.

The record total for 1972 was 747,100 acre-feet. About 50 percent of the total discharge came from wells, and approximately two-thirds of this discharge was from wells in Bexar County. However, well discharge in 1972 was 10 percent less than for 1971, while springflow increased by about 37 percent.

The compilation of records is part of a continuing hydrologic investigation by the USGS in cooperation with the EUWD and the TWDB.

The spring discharge was compiled from records of gauges operated by the USGS at the points of discharge. Pumpage for agriculture was estimated from records of power consumption and irrigated acreage. Records of the annual canvass of pumpage in the San Antonio area by the TWDB were used to compile municipal, military, and industrial usage.

The discharge by springs was from San Marcos Springs in Hays County, Comal Springs in Comal County, San Antonio and San Pedro Springs in Bexar County, and the Leona River Springs in Uvalde County. The recorded discharge for Leona River Springs included underflow through the gravel below the springs.

Major discharge by wells was from Bexar, Uvalde and Medina Counties, while the major springflow was from Comal and Hays Counties. Wells in Bexar County supplied water for municipal and military use. Other wells in Bexar and most of the large wells in Uvalde and Medina Counties supplied the irrigation needs for an estimated

The Texas Department of Agriculture will again be in charge of the Pavilion this year for the fourth consecutive year. Almost 1,000,000 persons annually have visited the Pavilion in the past three years. It is expected the number of visitors this year will exceed 1,000,000.

On display will be ways the consumer can get the most for the food dollar. Cooking demonstrations will be given to show how to prepare food on a cost per serving basis. Recipes will also be available to help you prepare economical yet tasty dishes.

In addition to Texas food products on display you can see a variety of ways in which you can use Texas-produced fibers, too.

A number of private companies and commodity organizations will have displays as well.

TURKEY production should show some good increases in the coming year, according to figures released by the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service.

Texas turkey breeders' intentions to market as of Sept. 1 increased 26 per cent from the January 1973 inventory for all breeds.

Turkey breeder flock owners in the 26 major turkey-producing states report at the beginning of the 1974 hatching season they expected to keep 15 per cent more breeder hens than the previous year. Flock owners also expect to increase heavy breed flocks by 15 per cent and plan to increase light breeds 18 per cent.

Medina Valley Conservation Tour held

Eighty farmers, ranchers and other persons interested in soil and water conservation attended the Annual Medina Valley Soil and Water Conservation District Field Day, Bar-B-Que and Directors' Election on Tuesday, October 2.

First stop of the field day was at the Hugo Naegelin farm where the group heard a talk by E. L. Abbott, District Conservationist of the Soil Conservation Service, on management of crop residue to prevent soil erosion and maintain soil fertility.

Darwin Schrader, Soil Conservation Service Range Conservationist, told the group about the importance of fertilization of coastal bermuda grass and other improved pasture grasses. The tour participants were shown Kleingrass, Gordo Bluestem, Wintergreen Hardinggrass and Coastal Bermudagrass.

Vernon Grunewald, SCS Soil Conservation Technician talked on parallel terraces and grassed waterways.

The tour group then traveled to the Herbert Wurzbach farm where Joe Miller, SCS Engineer, told about sprinkler irrigation systems. Jerry Turrentine, SCS Biologist, talked about brush management patterns to improve wildlife habitat and management of fish ponds for fish production. At San Geronimo Creek Vernon Grunewald told how Wurzbach had cleared shaped and sprigged the banks of the creek with Coastal Bermudagrass.

The last stop of the field day was at the Clinis Haby farm where a Bar-B-Que lunch was served and the election was held.

Clarence Wurzbach was selected to serve another 5-year term as Director of the Medina Valley Soil and Water Conservation District.

Frozen ingredients save cook's time

Recipes often call for chopped, grated, diced or minced ingredients.

Do this time-consuming work ahead of time—then freeze the various ingredients until needed, suggests Gaye Bippert, County Extension Agent.

For example, grate cheese a pound or two at a time. One pound makes about four cups grated cheese. Measure it in one-cup units—or in the amount wanted most often.

Place cheese in air-tight containers or wrap in moisture-vapor-resistant plastic wrap and freeze. American process cheese freezes well.

Chop a pound or two of onions at a time, either with a knife or in a blender for finely chopped pieces. Wrap in 1/2-cup or 1/4-cup units in air-tight plastic wrap.

Place packages in a glass freezer jar that can be tightly closed, to keep the onion odor from escaping and freeze.

Green peppers also can be chopped and frozen. Mince parsley and then put in the freezer. Both should be packaged in convenient-sized units, then placed in air-tight containers.

Keep bread crumbs on hand in the freezer, too. Save bread heels until you have several. Crumb them in the blender, or between two sheets of wax paper with a rolling pin.

Store in an air-tight freezer container. If preferred, lightly butter the heels before crumbling to make buttered crumbs.

Local delegates attend H D convention

Four local homemakers attended three days of workshops and special events Tuesday through Thursday Sept. 18 - 20 in Waco during the Texas Home Demonstration Association's 47th annual state meeting.

Delegates from Medina County included Mrs. Robert Graff, Jr., and Mrs. Floyd Saathoff of Hondo, Mrs. Wm. Linthicum of Natalia and Mrs. Reginald West of Devine.

They were among more than 748 members of Texas Home Demonstration Clubs throughout the state.

Local delegates attended workshops on citizenship, family life, 4-H, health, cultural arts, recreation, safety and publicity, as well as special workshops dealing with their primary areas of responsibility in Home Demonstration Club activities.

Addressing the association as keynote speakers were U. S. Rep. Omar Burleson (D-Tex.) of Anson, the Rev. Peter McLeod of the First Baptist Church in Waco, and Mrs. Florence W. Low, assistant director for home economics with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

Burleson spoke on "National Views on Family Living," and McLeod discussed "Home - A Beacon Light" in a speech titled after the convention theme.

Mrs. Low outlined "Present Trends in Family Living."

Home Demonstration Clubs, numbering 1,397 in Texas with more than 20,000 members, are sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the Texas A&M University System and the U. S. Department of Agriculture cooperating.

Clubs are part of the Extension educational effort to bring the latest information on homemaking to all families in Texas.

Jr. Shooters see safety demonstrations

Saturday September 29 the Hondo Junior Rifle Clubbers observed several safety demonstrations.

Mr. Schrader, Rifle Instructor, first showed how one single shot disintegrated a head of cabbage. He then put a tin can full of water on a half-dollar on a metal plate. He shot the can. In the bottom of the can was an indentation of the half-dollar. The can exploded.

Then he got a 12 1/2 pound chunk of ice and a club member hit it with a sledge hammer. Mr. Schrader shot another block of ice and shattered it.

Those members present included Brett, Brian, and Scott Bader; Chris and

Doug Cole; John Kalinowski; Kyle Landers; Kay and Nancy Martin; Gary and Ronald Morin; Scott Saathoff; Jesse Seals; Gary and Jerry Stanga; Hank and Jessica Muennink; Tobin Nations; David Bragg; David Hartmann; Monte Mumme; Glenn Schweers; Cathy Poerner; Cathy and Ronnie Schueling. ## Septic tanks not always the answer

A septic tank can either give satisfaction or be a disaster, depending on soil types, according to Everett L. Abbott head of the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Soil Conservation Service in Hondo, Texas.

"Rapid expansion in the suburbs and a new emphasis on rural living has greatly increased the number of septic tanks being installed," Abbott said. "Although septic tank disposal systems have been in use for several decades in both rural and suburban communities, many costly and avoidable mistakes can be made."

Abbott said that SCS soil scientists estimate 18 percent of the land in the local Medina Valley Soil and Water Conservation District holds only slight hazards for properly installed septic systems. Forty-five percent has moderate hazards for properly installed septic systems; and thirty-seven percent of the County has severe-hazard soils for installing septic systems.

Abbott says the normal system is one in which the sewer line leads to an underground septic tank in the yard and the overflow disperses over a large area through drain tile or perforated pipe. The tile or pipe is laid in trenches or in a seepage bed and covered with soil. The soil is planted to grass, and no part of the system is visible.

"Such a system should function well for many years if properly installed and maintained and if the soil in the disposal area is satisfactory," Abbott explains. "If the soil is not satisfactory, the sewage disposal system will not work, properly regardless of how well it is installed."

"In planning a septic tank sewage disposal system," Abbott says, "first find out if the soil can absorb the liquid sewage, or effluent, that flows from the septic tank. Some soils absorb effluent rapidly, others slowly."

The effluent must be absorbed and filtered by the soil; otherwise, it may reach the surface or may contaminate ground water. Unfiltered sewage that reaches the surface attracts flies and insects, and it can be a source of diseases," Abbott emphasized.

"Local ordinances may prohibit your installing a sewage system and thus prevent your building a house. And some soils are not suitable for use as septic tank absorption fields," Abbott said.

According to Abbott, a soil survey can help in planning a disposal system. This survey, made by SCS, includes descriptions of soils, interpretations for soil use, and maps showing the location and extent of each kind of soil. In some places, the soil changes within the distance of a few feet.

Soil surveys, Abbott explains, point out the limitations of the soils and the hazards in using them for different purposes. Surveys published in recent years give information useful in planning non-farm soil uses, including septic tank sewage disposal systems. Where no soil survey is available, Abbott says that those needing soil interpretations usually can get help from the Soil Conservation Service.

Abbott urges that, before planning a sewage disposal system, you should become familiar with local health regulations, the permit and inspection requirements, and the penalties that may be imposed for violations. Such information is available from the city or county planning commission of the Texas Health Department.

Further information is available in Agriculture Information Bulletin 349, "Soils and Septic Tanks," available from Soil Conservation Service offices.

Doves act like homing pigeons

With a few exceptions, mourning doves are pretty much homebodies, according to results of a Texas Parks and Wildlife Department banding study. The department and private individuals banded 51,095 doves between 1925 and 1965 and have recovered 1,734 bands from birds marked in Texas, according to a recent article in Texas Parks and Wildlife magazine.

Department biologists say that 85 percent of the birds were recovered in Texas, and the majority of these recoveries were made in the same ecological region where the birds were banded.

Because 63 percent of the recoveries from winter-banded adults were made during the following hunting season in the same region of the banding, biologists believe that adult doves return to the same wintering area year after year. A portion of the population could be there year-round.

More than two-thirds of the recoveries from nestling and juvenile mourning doves banded in summer were taken the following fall within the same ecological region where they were banded, indicating that a substantial proportion of immature doves remain in the area where banded until hunting season begins.

Louisiana accounted for 24 percent of Texas-banded birds recovered in the United States. Hunters in 18 other states, including California, Minnesota, North Dakota and Florida at the extremes, have recovered bands from Texas birds.

Biologists do not know the speed of dove migrations, but they have a couple of indications that doves can travel great distances in a short time. One dove banded in Manitoba was killed in Travis County 37 days later after a journey of 1,600 miles.

Another dove banded in Brooks County in Texas was killed 66 days later in North Dakota after a 1,500 mile trip. Biologists point out that there is no way to determine how long the doves had been in the area before they were shot.

Mexico accounted for 54 percent of the bands recovered from doves killed outside of Texas. Bands were also received from Guatemala, Honduras, El Salvador and Nicaragua.

The record for the longest time between the date banded and the date recovered is held by a dove banded June 4, 1953, in Palo Pinto County. The bird was shot 11 years and four months later in Mexico. Another dove was recovered 10 years after it was banded as a nestling.

Biologists say these long lapses between banding and recovery are rare since at least 50 percent of mourning doves never see their first birthday.

Prison Rodeo ready to open Oct. 7

It's one down and one to go at the pre-rodeo tryouts of the upcoming 42nd annual Texas Prison Rodeo.

E. H. (Hoot) Crawford, rodeo arena director, got his first look at returning veterans and newcomers this past weekend at the first of two weekend tryout periods.

Fifty-eight hopefuls displayed their riding abilities - or lack of it - at the hour and a half tryout session.

Three newcomers to the rodeo prison caught the eye of Crawford. Thomas Horace, with a 10-year sentence from Groveton, emerged as the outstanding rookie with strong rides in bareback bronc and bull riding events.

Lonnie R. Williams, 15 years from Fort Worth, came close to equalling Horace's showing in bareback bronc and bull riding. Roger Stinson, three years from Seminole, rounded out the top trio of new riders that were impressive. Stinson, too, rode in the bareback bronc and riding go-rounds.

A returning veteran of Texas Prison Rodeo action, Taylor Johnican, three years from Brazoria, was the top rider of the day, though. Johnican's riding in bareback bronc and bull riding was particularly outstanding.

Robert Waldrep, five years from Orange, who finished fifth in overall individual winnings last season, displayed the ability he showed last season and has to be considered a top contender for the top-hand title in the upcoming October rodeos.

Harry Southerland, 25 years from Fort Worth, the defending champion with back-to-back titles in 1971-72, pitched off a bull in the only ride he attempted.

Tryouts will be held again this coming weekend with a new group of veterans and newcomers - and then it'll be Crawford's task to select some 40-45 riders from a group of more than 100.

Regular rodeo action gets underway on Sunday, October 7, with the traditional grand entry set for 2 p.m. Rodeos will be held each Sunday during October.

Ticket information can be received by writing to the Rodeo Ticket Office, Box 99, Huntsville, 77340.

Hunters should hunt harder

AUSTIN -- Although the bag limit for white-tailed deer in many parts of Texas is three, few hunters (approximately seven percent) harvested that many last year.

Only 37 percent of deer hunters killed two or more deer, according to a deer and turkey harvest survey for the 1972-73 hunting season conducted by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department. The bulk of whitetail deer hunters, 62 percent, killed only one deer during the entire season.

The information from the survey came from responses to 38,774 questionnaires mailed to a random sampling of hunting license holders.

According to the survey, an estimated 516,900 hunters accounted for approximately 362,000 whitetails while 37,000 hunters killed an estimated 14,400 mule deer. Turkey hunters numbered 102,800 and they killed an estimated 35,700 birds.

Department officials found, among other things, that 20 percent of the deer harvested were killed the first weekend of the season, and the kill on weekends was two to three times as heavy as the kill on weekdays.

throughout the night, losing five fumbles to the Cats while Comfort played flawless football most of the time. An injury to Cowboy quarterback Bobby Joe Rothe early in the third quarter also hurt the offense of D'Hanis.

Comfort struck first eight minutes into the opening period. Taking over from D'Hanis on downs at their own 16-yard line, the Cats marched 84 yards in seven plays -- one a 46-yard run by Keith Jung, another a 28-yard pass from Anthony Bohnert to Randy Sundin -- with Bohnert sneaking in from three yards out. A two-point conversion pass was good, and Comfort led 8-0.

After another D'Hanis Drive sputtered at the Comfort 25, the Bobcats needed only two plays to score. After a penalty moved the ball back five yards, Jung broke for 12 yards, then speedy Tim Barsch left everyone behind, 68 yards for the second touchdown with 8:55 left in the half. This PAT run was unsuccessful, so the Cats took a 14-0 lead.

That score held as D'Hanis and Comfort exchanged fumbles twice, neither team threatening before the gun sounded.

IN the second half, a bad snap on a punt forced the ball over on the D'Hanis 30, and four plays Jung ran the ball in 16 yards for the tally. Again, the extra point try was no good, and with 8:47 left in the third quarter, Comfort led comfortably, 20-0.

The Cats added two more touchdowns in the fourth quarter.

Another high snap on a punt gave Comfort the ball at the D'Hanis 4-yard line. It was four bruising plays later before Bohnert barely sneaked the ball in on a fourth-and-goal from a yard out, but Comfort led 26-0 with 5:55 remaining in the game. Again, the extra point try was unsuccessful.

The final score of the night came on a long 70-yard drive, as Jung once again went in from the three-yard line to end the night's scoring at 32-0.

Saturday night, the Cowboys will play Brackettville at Cowboy Stadium. The game will start at 8 p.m.

Harmon Pro Forecast

Sunday, October 7

SAN FRANCISCO 26 ATLANTA 21 -- Falcons

pasted Staints and were pased by Rams. After 3 away games, finally playing in front of home folds. 49ers' John Brodie and his pin-point passing will be hard to beat.

PITTSBURGH 31 SAN DIEGO 10 -- Terry

Bradshaw has Steelers in early charge toward AFC Central championship. In Pittsburgh, Chargers are down seven points before the kick-off! looks to be big spread.

PHILADELPHIA 27 BUFFALO 20 -- Wouldn't have believed this last year, but Eagles and Roman Gabriel are 7-pointers over Bills. Home advantage may benefit Buffalo... we'll stick with rejuvenated Eagles.

OAKLAND 20 ST. LOUIS 17 -- Don Coryell making

Cards a real surprise team in NFL this fall. Quarterback John Hart doing outstanding job. Raiders' ageless George Blanda may provide winning margin.

MINNESOTA 17 DETROIT 13 -- Chuck Foreman

giving Vike's first real ground threat. Lions' Greg Landry big threat on ground or in the air. Another typical NFC Central Division dog-eat-dog struggle.

MIAMI 14 NEW YORK JETS 9 -- Dolphins starting

a new win "streak." Jets' Al Woodall not a Bob Griese, but doing a good job in Namath's big shoes. If NY defense does its job, should be close ball game.

LOS ANGELES 35 HOUSTON 6 -- One of three games that "looks" to be one-sided. In pro ball, they seldom come out that way! Rams another surprise team so far. Oilers to lose another in long string.

GREEN BAY 17 NEW YORK GIANTS 10 -- Good

match unless Giants perform as they did against Eagles two weeks ago! Good defenses and offenses that can move. Pack and Chester Marcol will move fastest, mostest.

DENVER 26 KANSAS CITY 14 -- The Broncos just have to be one of the three eyebrow-raisers in NFL. Chiefs having their difficulties, and KC fans showing their frustration. Denver by quite a few.

CLEVELAND 23 CINCINNATI 20 -- The first Battle of Ohio for 1973, and it could be real tight. Bengals' Ken Anderson may have good day against rather porous Brown defense. Still, Cleveland by three.

CHICAGO 34 NEW ORLEANS 7 -- Saints being thrown to NFL wolves Sunday after Sunday. this week, they'll probably be eaten by Bears. Archie Manning is trying, but club is just too inexperienced.

BALTIMORE 23 NEW ENGLAND 17 -- Though

Colts' Marty Domres and Bert Jones are having pass interception problems, Patriots' and Jim Plunkett's problems are little greater. Baltimore favored by six.

Monday, October 8

WASHINGTON 24 DALLAS 19 -- These two clubs,

blessed with four top quarterbacks, have set up fantastic rivalry in NFC East. Skins surprised Cowboys last year... might be Dallas' turn this year.

We know better than to beat the chest this early in the season about forecasting average. One sad weekend can eat it right up. So... very quietly... thru games of Monday, Sept. 24th, we're 19-5-2, for a picking percentage. Cheery, but leery!!

Cowboys ranked 9th in state

The D'Hanis Cowboys of Class B schools.

D'Hanis, which had been listed 6th last week, is now 9th in the state. Comfort, who defeated the Cowboys, is also ninth, in the state, among Class A teams.

Topping the list in Class A is New Diana; in Class 2A, Friendswood is number one; in Class 3A, Gregory-Portland is at the top, with Cuero in fifth place; and in Class 4A, Baytown Sterling heads the list, and San Antonio Lee tops area teams in fifth place.

Owls lose to Royals 30-0; look to loop play Friday

Hondo's football fortunes took another dip Friday night at Barry Field as the Owls lost their final non-district game to the St. Gerard's Royals, 30-0.

The Owl's troubles came at the hands of an ironclad defensive squad that made things happen to Owl ballcarriers, kept up the pressure on Brian Finger's passing, and snagged four of those passes out of the air. Seven turnovers plus a blocked quick-kick deep in Owl territory made for a long night as the Royals capitalized on almost every opportunity.

Friday night, Hondo will go into its first district game against the Cotulla Cowboys. Game time will be 8 p.m., in Cotulla. The Owls enter this game with an even 2-2 record, while Cotulla will be 0-3-1.

Less than two minutes were gone in the second quarter as Mike Bachofer capped a 56-yard drive with a four-yard run. The kick was good, and the Royals led 7-0. The drive had begun with a recovered Owl fumble at the Hondo 44.

A blocked Gene Mc Anelly quick-kick was recovered by St. Gerard's at the Hondo 13-yard line in Hondo's next possession, and the Royals set to work to raise the score. But two St. Gerard penalties moved the ball back 20 yards. Another penalty, this one on Hondo, gave back 12 of those yards, but the Hondo defense caused a third down incompletion and the Royals had to be satisfied with a 13-yard Bestal field goal. Score with 7 minutes in the half, 10-0.

The Owls came back after halftime, but the Royals proved to be impervious on defense.

Two more fumbles and two more interceptions spelled doom for Hondo as St. Gerard's added three touchdowns in the fourth quarter to pull away from the Owls.

Kellner hit Mike Jupe for 26 yards and a touchdown eight seconds into the fourth quarter. A good PAT kick made it Royals over Owls 17-0.

Later in the period, a Hondo pass interference call put the Royals at the Owls' 4-yard line. That Crawford powered it in for six more points, and St. Gerard's led 23-0 after an unsuccessful extra point run.

Can The Owls come back? Well, history may give some indication. The last time Hondo was whitewashed was in 1969, when Randolph came to town and downed the Owls 24-0. But after that game, the Owls went on to a Regional championship.

The whole district race lies ahead, and what went

Since 1953, the Hondo Owls have played 550 or better in 17 of 20 seasons. Last losing season was 1961.

Co-captains on the first Owl team in 1927 were R. C. Rath and Nuel Windrow.

Colligate Record: Longest run from Scrimmage 115 yards by Wyllis Terry of Yale in 1884; Longest kick-off return 110 yards by Robert Hill of Army in 1907.

Presented by E. R. LEINWEBER CO. 1710 Ave. M 426-2443 Hondo, Texas.

See us first for exceptional values for the entire family.

With only 17 seconds remaining in the game, reserve quarterback Rene Trevino hit Dan Daniels for a 23-yard scoring pass. This time the extra point kick was good, and the game was on ice, 30-0.

District race starts with Cotulla

Last Friday's performance against St. Gerard's will make for a long climb back for the Owls, but without apologizing for the Owls (they don't need apologies—just a good night), St. Gerard's was hardly a patsy by anyone's standards.

They're not the same team that Hondo blanked a year ago. In fact, they are the team who defeated Del Rio (who also beat Uvalde), and shut out a respectable South San team.

Can The Owls come back? Well, history may give some indication. The last time Hondo was whitewashed was in 1969, when Randolph came to town and downed the Owls 24-0. But after that game, the Owls went on to a Regional championship.

The whole district race lies ahead, and what went before won't have any bearing on who captures the district crown. It begins tomorrow night, at Cotulla.

And Cotulla's reasoning seems to run along similar lines, by the way.

They presently stand at 0-3-1, but they're a better team than that record indicates.

The Cowboys operate from a Wing T and strong set offense, and get good mileage from halfback Rene Benevides, a 185 pound Senior.

The offensive lineup abounds with Seniors—eight in all—who give the attack size and experience.

Quarterback Joe Casey, also a Senior at 165 pounds, is not afraid to throw the ball. The Cowboys may pass on any down, in any situation.

Rounding out the backfield are Rudy Garcia, 160 pound Junior; and wingback Raul Maldonado, 165 pound Junior.

On the line, some prime people-movers are George Wadkins, a 150 pound Senior guard, and Bill Dove, 208 pounds and also a Senior. Other good linemen are right guard Deonicio Ramirez and Carl Jones, a 170 pound Senior center.

At ends are Mark Halvorson, 175 pound Senior, and Robert Casas, 150 pound Senior.

On defense, the Cowboys tend toward a 5-2 setup with four deep, and this unit is an aggressive one.

A major problem so far for the Cowboys has been turnovers on offense. They have lost two games by less than a touchdown, and tied Benevides 0-0, a break in the opposite direction might have put Cotulla well into the winning ranks.

Owl injuries continue to look the same.

Ted Mendoza will not see action Friday night, due to a reinjured ankle. Ray Garcia is a questionable starter, having broken his nose against Clemens, then injured his shin against St. Gerard's. He may or may not see action Friday.

How they fared

District 28-AA had a bad week, with district teams losing four games while winning only three. Pearsall, 3-1 for the season beating Somerset 35-0 Friday.

Devine defeated Judson 16-0 to hang on to the only undefeated record in the area. They are now 4-0 going into district play.

Medina Valley was able to even its season record at 2-2 as they defeated Southwest 20-7.

Hondo fell to a 2-2 record as St. Gerard's downed the Owls 30-0.

Dilley lost its undefeated skein to Lytle, 23-6. They now hold a 3-1 card.

Carrizo Springs lost a close one to Laredo United 18-13, and they now stand 1-3.

Cotulla lost a heart-breaker in the final minutes to San Diego, 13-12. That one left them 0-3-1 so far.

This week, it's Pearsall against Carrizo, Hondo at Cotulla, Devine at Dilley. Medina Valley will be open.

B--Team, Frosh meet Fred'sburg

The Hondo B-Team and Freshmen games were rained out in their scheduled games with Devine Thursday.

Heavy rains in and near Devine forced cancellation of the games.

Tonight both teams will be back in action against Fredericksburg.

Starting time for the Freshman game will be 30 minutes earlier than usual, at 5:30 p.m., and the B-Team game will follow the Freshman contest as usual.

Venison value set at $12 million

Texas deer hunters took home almost $12 million worth of venison during the past season, according to Texas Parks and Wildlife Department officials.

The figure is based on the amount of boneless meat from 14,400 mule and 362,000 white-tailed deer killed during the 1972-73 season and the November, 1972, price of ground beef chuck which averaged 8.85 per pound statewide.

The average field-dressed mule deer weighed 106 pounds and yielded an estimated 53 pounds of boneless meat, while whitetails field dressed at approximately 73 pounds and yielded slightly more than 36 pounds of boneless meat.

The total amount of boneless mule deer meat harvested in Texas was approximately 762,000 pounds and valued at more than $647,000.

Whitetails yielded approximately 13,174,000 pounds of boneless meat valued at more than $11,198,000.

Department officials say that rising beef prices should raise the value of venison considerably during the coming season.
